

About Clara City Telephone

Clara City Telephone is over 100 years old. Their parent company, Hanson Communications is one of the top 100 telephone companies in the United States and provides service to around 30,000 customers in several, rural Midwest communities.

The company provides telephone internet and cable television to a number of communities in South-Central Minnesota. Offering telephone and internet services in Clara City and Maynard. In addition, they provide cable television and internet (in partnership with MVTV Wireless) in Hanley Falls, Lake Lillian and Raymond. In the communities of Belview, Echo, Wood Lake, Clements, Comfrey, Lamberton, Lucan, Nicollet, Revere, Wabasso and Walnut

Clara City Telephone prides itself on being customer-friendly with one on one customer and technical service. In addition, they strive to make improvements in technology along with new choices to meet the needs of their customers.